It may be clarified that while NSE/NCL will take various effective methods to ensure to transfer the funds before the cut-off time in the AMC's bank account so that the investment of the client, will be eligible for the historic day and same day NAV for Liquid and Non-Liquid transactions respectively, NSE/NCL or any one of its staff members cannot be held responsible in the event of delay in transfer of the funds in AMC's bank account and the client will get that day's NAV in which the funds are realised in the AMC's bank account.
