L&T bags two 'mega' offshore orders

A consortium led by LTHE, a wholly-owned arm of Larsen & Toubro, has bagged two mega offshore orders from a prestigious overseas client. The engineering and construction company, however, did not provide the exact value of the contract, but specified that as per its classification, a mega project is of over Rs 7,000 crore. The scope of work comprises engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) for new facilities and integration with existing installations, Larsen & Toubro (L&T). LTHE is currently executing several domestic and international offshore projects. It is also committed to building its regional presence in geographies that it operates by growing local skills and talent, improving procurement from local vendors, engaging commercially with local contractors on the foundation of a sustainable workload.

Oil at USD 84 again: Petrol, diesel price on hold for 68th day in a row

Petrol and diesel prices have remained unchanged for 68 days in a row despite a USD 16 swing in international oil prices and global rates again climbing to USD 84 per barrel, oil company data showed. Petrol and diesel were last changed on November 4, 2021, when the central government cut excise duty to give relief from rates that had touched an all-time high. This is the longest duration of no-change in prices since the daily price revision was introduced in June 2017, the data showed. Prior to that, there was an 82-day hiatus in rate revision between March 17, 2020, and June 6, 2020. On November 4, 2021, excise duty on diesel was cut by Rs 10 a litre and that on petrol by Rs 5 per litre, resulting in an equivalent reduction in retail pump rates. Petrol costs Rs 95.41 a litre in Delhi and diesel is priced at Rs 86.67, price information from state fuel retailers showed. The rates have remained unchanged despite a wild swing in international oil prices. Brent crude oil, the best-known international benchmark, was at USD 82.74 per barrel on November 5, 2021, before it started to fall and touch USD 68.87 a barrel on December 1.
