

The Nifty ended 1.25% down at 16958.65. It opened on a positive note and remained range bound throughout the day, however, ruthless sell off in the last half led to a huge bearish candle on daily. 200 EMA is placed around 16850 on daily likely to act as the immediate critical support. Pullback likely to find sellers on rise in the price band of 17050-17100. The Nifty immediate trading range likely to be 16850-17100. Next support below 16850 is placed around 16600 levels.

On the Nifty hourly chart, chart pattern suggesting pullback towards critical MA band placed in the price range of 17050-17100 may again find sellers.

Nifty patterns on multiple periods suggesting; candle on daily pointing towards range bound oscillation with a negative bias in the price range of 16850-17100. Intraday pull back likely to find sellers.

Car prices to go up in Delhi as govt mulls hiking road tax

The prices of cars, SUVs and commercial vehicles in Delhi may go up as the transport department proposes a hike in road tax of some categories of vehicles. The proposal for raising road tax on specific categories of vehicles has been forwarded by the transport department to the finance department, they claimed. The road tax on private vehicles in Delhi is presently up to 12.5 per cent depending on fuel type and price range. In its annual budget 2022-23, the Delhi government's Transport Department has set the target to collect around Rs 2,000 crore from various taxes and fees.

Coal shortage causing electricity crisis in 12 states, says Maha minister

Maharashtra Energy Minister Nitin Raut on Tuesday said 12 states are facing electricity issues due to shortage of coal and that his department was working to mitigate the shortfall here with micro-level planning. Talking to reporters here, Raut said there was no load-shedding in Maharashtra for the past five to six days due to this micro-level planning and the power deficit stood at 15 per cent. Mahagenco has set a target to generate 8000 MW electricity, while thermal power plants in the coastal region operate on imported coal, the ban on the import of which was recently lifted by the Centre.

L&T bags order for its water & effluent treatment business

Indian multinational company L&T Construction's international arm has bagged a contract for its water & effluent treatment business to construct and commission water supply schemes for various towns in Tanzania. The order, which the company classifies as 'significant', is worth between Rs 1,000 to 2,500 crore. The project will be funded by the EXIM Bank of India. The company has also secured add-on domestic orders from the Uttar Pradesh State Water & Sanitation Mission to implement various rural water supply projects under the Jal Jeevan Mission to provide Functional House Tap Connections (FHTC) in the state.
